- This next edition of the Concacaf Champions Cup will feature a rematch of the most recent Liga MX final between Tigres UANL and Toluca, where Los Diablos Rojos were crowned champions after a penalty shootout.
- Toluca scored four goals in their last three home matches in the Concacaf Champions Cup (4-0 vs. San Diego FC, 4-2 vs. LA Galaxy), the first team to score four or more goals in three straight home games in the competition since Santos Laguna in 2015-16 (4-0 vs. W Connection, 6-1 vs. Saprissa, 4-0 vs. LA Galaxy).
- Helinho opened the scoring and netted his fifth goal of 2026 across Liga MX and the Concacaf Champions Cup, with four of them coming from the penalty spot.
- Toluca has averaged the second most shots per match in this Concacaf Champions Cup, averaging 19.7 attempts per game, trailing only Cruz Azul, who averaged 21.0 shots per match.
- Everardo López's goal was Toluca's third from outside the box in this season's Concacaf Champions Cup, second only behind fellow finalists Tigres (4).
- Toluca's 15 shots on target were the most in any semi-final match in the Concacaf Champions Cup since 2017. It was also the most shots on target by any team in a match in this year's competition.
- Antonio Mohamed will manage his fourth final against Tigres UANL as a head coach, with all previous meetings coming in Liga MX. In the Apertura 2024, he defeated Los Universitarios as América manager; later, in the Apertura 2017, he lost the Clásico Regio final with Monterrey; and in the recent Apertura 2025, he won the title with Toluca in a penalty shootout.
- Sergi Palencia won six tackles tonight for LAFC, the most by any player in a match in this season's Concacaf Champions Cup. Sergi Palencia's 11 tackles in the competition are the second most this year behind only teammate Mathieu Choinière (12).
