América's victory tonight was the sixth win by a Liga MX Femenil team against an NWSL team in the history of the Concacaf W Champions Cup. América recorded four of those six wins, defeating San Diego Wave, Orlando Pride, Gotham FC and now Washington Spirit.

With a goal and two assists tonight, Scarlett Camberos became the first player in the history of the Concacaf W Champions Cup to directly contribute to a goal in four straight matches in the competition (6 goals, 3 assists), a streak that began in the 9-0 win over Chorrillo in September last year.

Scarlett Camberos recorded nine goal contributions in this year's Concacaf W Champions Cup (6 goals, 3 assists), including scoring once and assisting twice tonight, the most goal contributions in a single edition of the competition.

Sofia Cantore's goal to cut the lead to 2-1 was scored from 32.1 meters away. Only Christine Sinclair (35.3 meters) for Thorns against América in 2024/25 and Irene Guerrero (32.9 meters) for América against Chorrillo this season were scored from further out.

Scarlett Camberos (3 goals in the semi-final, 1 goal, 2 assists in the final), Geyse (3 assists in the semi-final, 2 goals, 1 assist in the final) and Aylín Aviléz (1 goal in the semi-final, 1 goal in the final) all directly contributed to goals in both the semi-final and final for América.

Geyse (América) scored in the knockout rounds for the eventual champion in both editions of the Concacaf W Champions Cup, scoring for Gotham FC in the semi-final against América in 2024/25 before scoring for América against Spirit in the final tonight.

There were six passes in the build-up to both Sofia Cantore's 30th-minute goal and Rosemonde Kouassi's 46th-minute goal for Spirit, the most passes leading to a goal in the knockout stages of this season's Concacaf W Champions Cup.

Rosemonde Kouassi's goals 36 seconds after half-time was the fastest goal scored at the start of any half in the history of the Concacaf W Champions Cup, surpassing the 60 seconds by Esther González for Gotham FC in the second half match against Vancouver Rise Academy in September 2025.

Rosemonde Kouassi (2 goals tonight) and Scarlett Camberos (1 goal tonight) both scored six goals in this season's Concacaf W Champions Cup, the most scored by a player in a single edition of the competition.

Irene Guerrero and Scarlett Camberos scored América's last two goals tonight. For both players it was their seventh career goal in the Concacaf W Champions Cup, equaling each other for the most goals in competition history.
