Tigres UANL

Referee

Toluca has won the two penalty shoot-outs they were involved in the Concacaf Champions Cup: besides today, they defeated San Jose Earthquakes in the 2013-14 quarter-final.

The last time a Concacaf Champions Cup final went to extra time was in the 2005-06 edition, also featuring two Mexican clubs, when Club América defeated Toluca.

Toluca's starting lineup had an average age of 27 years and 24 days, the youngest for a Mexican team in a CONCACAF Champions Cup final since Guadalajara in the first leg of the 2017-18 final (26 years and 69 days).

César Araújo (Tigres UANL) is the first player to achieve a 100% pass completion rate in a CONCACAF Champions Cup final since the 2016-17 season, among those who attempted at least 30 passes in these matches (35/35).

At 40 years, 109 days old, Tigres UANL goalkeeper Nahuel Guzmán is the oldest player to start a Concacaf Champions Cup final since at least 2011, while André-Pierre Gignac (40 years, 176 days) is the oldest to appear in a Concacaf Champions Cup final since at least 2011.

Diego Lainez (Tigres UANL) drew both of Toluca's yellow cards: Everardo López's in the 87th minute and Mauricio Isaís' in the 96th minute, during extra time. Lainez was also the most-fouled player in the match, winning six fouls.

This is the first time since at least 2011 that a goal scored in a Concacaf Champions Cup final was both scored and assisted by substitutes: Fernando Arce assisted Jorge Díaz's goal for Toluca.

Jesús Garza (Tigres UANL) won seven tackles tonight, the most by a player in a Concacaf Champions Cup match this season and the most in a final match in the competition since Felipe Baloy (8) for Santos Laguna in the first leg against Monterrey 2012.

Both goals Toluca have scored in the Concacaf Champions Cup final in the modern era (since 2008) have been scored by substitutes: Jorge Díaz today and Edgar Benítez in 2014. Díaz is the first substitute to score in a Concacaf Champions Cup final match since André-Pierre Gignac for Tigres in 2019.

Joaquim's equalizing goal for Tigres UANL was his third goal in this season's Concacaf Champions Cup, equaling Toluca's Jesús Gallardo for the most goals by a defender in this year's competition.
