- FC Motagua have progressed from the group stage of the Concacaf Central American Cup for the fourth consecutive time. They are the only Honduran team to advance in more than one edition of the competition.
- CSD Municipal outshot FC Motagua 21 to nine and enjoyed 61% possession in their Concacaf Central American Cup group stage match, yet it was the Honduran side who accumulated a higher expected goals total (1.75 to 0.88 xG); FC Motagua also created the three highest-probability chances of the match: Jonathan Moya in the 92nd minute (0.56 xG), Rodrigo De Olivera in the 36th minute (0.48 xG), and Alejandro Reyes in the 95th minute (0.19 xG).
- Rodrigo de Olivera's opening goal for FC Motagua was their most intricate in the current Concacaf Central American Cup, featuring 14 passes before the shot; this surpasses their previous most elaborate goals in the competition, Jonathan Moya's against Verdes FC and De Olivera's own against CD FAS, both of which involved six passes.
